

This week in the Boarding House

Dear Parents and Pupils,

Despite the horrible weather over the weekend, we were fortunate to have sunshine all week during week three of term. Our evenings were spent outside, playing, having a picnic, and searching for Madame Clayton.

After a long weekend and returning from the bank holiday on Monday, we were treated with sunlight for the rest of the week. Following the fixtures on Wednesday, we enjoyed a walk to Jubilee Park for an ice cream before seeing some YouTubers play cricket. The pupils seemed to be able to name a few, but Mrs Warwick-Smith had no idea!!

On Thursday, we played our own version of Hunted, looking for our House Captains. Boarders had 30 minutes to find them and keep them from reaching the base.

Have a wonderful weekend, and we'll see you on Monday.

With thanks

Mrs Warwick-Smith
